Fulford Youth Leadership Academy A Huge Success

Forty-two bright and energetic juniors and seniors from Emanuel County Institute, Swainsboro High School, and David Emanuel Academy gathered recently for the 2nd Annual Fulford Youth Leadership Academy.

Students participated in Real Colors™ training. This dynamic workshop experience provided students with the skills to better understand human behavior, uncover motivators specific to each temperament, and improve communication skills. They also participated in a most informative session regarding identity theft. University of Georgia Extension staff members, Marnie Dekle and Angie Daughtry, led the training.

THANK YOU!
For Making Our
5 Year Anniversary
Celebration
A Huge Success!

On April 30, following a week-long observance, the Sudie A. Fulford Community Learning Center celebrated its 5th Anniversary and the many successes that have firmly established it as a gateway between the EGSC campus and the community. Benefactors Pete and Ada Lee Correll were joined by many college and community friends who gathered to express appreciation and reflect upon the Center's numerous accomplishments, including the announcement and introduction of EGSC's first 20 Correll Scholars.
